Jr. High Intramurals Spectator Code of Conduct

Spectators play an important role in our Intramural program. The habits, language, and general actions of all spectators, students and adults alike, go a long way in showing the quality and sportsmanship of our community.

ALL SPECTATORS ARE EXPECTED TO:

1. Provide positive cheering and other moral support for all teams.
2. Show respect for all game officials and refrain from any unsportsmanlike act directed toward them.
3. Censure fellow spectators whose behavior is unbecoming.
4. Show respect for all players, coaches, and scorekeepers.
5. Refrain from heckling members of the opposing teams.
6. Refrain from applauding errors by opponents or penalties inflicted upon them.

The following actions will result in removal from the particular event and/or restriction from attendance at future events.

1. Disrespect to either team involved in the game.
2. Disrespect to either Mesa School District or City of Mesa representatives.
3. Abuse of school district or City of Mesa property.
4. Use of profane language, obscene gestures, or similar actions.
5. Actions which are a potential hazard to health, safety, well-being of spectators or participants.
6. Other inappropriate behavior deemed sufficiently repetitive, flagrant, or severe by Mesa School District or City of Mesa staff.
